CELLARS

Welcome to Jeff Cohn Cellars.

Single vineyard Rhône-centric and Zinfandel wines that walk a tightrope, balancing the pure expression of California fruit with the Rhône-influenced winemaking of vintner Jeff Cohn.

2015 Sweetwater Springs Vineyard Russian River Valley Zinfandel

Maybe it's the steep hillside vineyard, the use of larger format barrels or being fermented in concrete, but from the first taste to the last, this wine is seamless, exotic and a reminder of how delicious Zinfandel is.

JEB DUNNUCK

94 Pts The 2015 Zinfandel Sweetwater Springs gives up a big, boisterous bouquet of black raspberries, plums, Asian spices, cured meats, and cedar. Just screaming Zinfandel at the top of its lungs, it has medium to full body, a rounded, fleshy mid-palate, and loads of charm. It's going to drink nicely for upwards of a decade.

91 Pts The 2015 Zinfandel Sweetwater Springs is medium to deep garnet-purple with a nose of prunes, fruitcake and spice box with hints of dried flowers, hoisin, smoked meats and leather. Full-bodied, concentrated and with a tart line cutting through the dense dried-berry flavors, it offers a firm, chewy frame and great length.
