2016 Cassata Vineyard Sonoma Valley Zinfandel

Biodynamically farmed Cassata Vineyard, located directly behind the famed Pagani Ranch Vineyard, this hillside vineyard with 10+ year old vines of Zinfandel and Petite Sirah produces Zinfandel that is very concentrated but remains light on its feet.

93 Pts Fans of Jeff Cohn's wines may well prefer this bottling to the Iron Hill effort because this one has the "swaggering, swashbuckling" personality that is most often associated with the leaders of Mr. Cohn's parade. It is deep and extracted with dense blackberryish fruit accented by notes of black plum, dark roasted coffee and burnt chocolate all in service to its remarkable central fruit. That it has sinew and a touch of latter palate heat is to be expected, yet, when served with a well-seasoned lamb shank or something of that ilk, it shines even now and will only get better and better for up to a decade to come. ### WINE ENTHUSIAST.

90 Pts Robust aromas of blackberry and baking spice rise from an oaky, juicy wine, thick and velvety in texture. Rich, full-bodied style benefits from cola and a fresh pinch of acidity.
