55% Grenache 30% Syrah 15% Grenache

WINE ENTHUSIAST.

92 Pts This is a robust, full-flavored blend of 55% Grenache, 30% Syrah and 15% Mourvèdre, a majority of the wine aged in concrete. Rose-petal and lavender aromas lead to big layers of black licorice, grilled meat, mushroom and strawberry puree, as underlying acidity saves the day.

91 Pts Acting more like a Syrah than it has any right to do, this blend is lifted by aromas of black cherries, dark coffee, licorice and dried bark, and it gives no ground in the mouth where its full body and evident tannins give it a gruff edge that demands several years of bottle age. Its label nomenclature might suggest something less than serious, but the depth and range here say otherwise, and if we are used to the bold and unmistakable purity of this winery's many Rhône bottlings, this effort demonstrates a mastery of the art of the blend as well.
