2016 Orcio

Cassata Vineyard • Sonoma Valley

Fermented and aged in a clay amphora, a stunningly rich purple color with aromatics of blackberry pie filling, clay pot, white and black peppercorns and dried meats soar from the glass.

75% Zinfandel / 25% Petite Sirah

94 Pts

The 2016 Zinfandel Orcio comes from Sonoma Valley and is a juicy, fruit forward, undeniably delicious effort that has smoking good notes of blackberries, blueberries, dried earth, crushed rocks, and cedary herbs. This medium to full-bodied, elegant, silky beauty has building tannin, a seamless texture, and a great finish. It certainly shows the quality of the 2016 vintage in Sonoma and is going to drink nicely for a decade or more.

JEB DUNNUCK

92 Pts

Scented of blackberry pie, prunes and sultanas with hints of new leather, fried herbs, tilled soil and oolong tea, the medium to deep garnet-purple colored 2016 Zinfandel Orcio Cassata Vineyard fills the full-bodied palate with dried fruit and earthy layers, supported by chewy tannins and plenty of freshness, finishing long.
