2015 Orcio Cassata Vineyard Sonoma Valley

Fermented and aged in a terra cotta amphora, this wine is always a mystery to me. It is the spitting image of the Cassata Zinfandel, but more fruit driven yet at the same time more earth notes come through. Very floral and spicy with a cinnamon stick component that is as exotic and sensual as a Zinfandel can be. To truly understand this wine, one must taste it along side the Cassata Zinfandel which was aged in barrel.

75% Zinfandel / 25% Petite Sirah

Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, the 2015 Zinfandel Orcio Cassata Vineyard gives up notes of preserved plums, cranberry pie, baked raspberries and raisin cake with touches of dried Provence herbs, espresso and allspice. The decadently fruited, full-bodied palate gives a solid, chewy frame to rein in the boisterous fruit with lovely freshness and a very long, multilayered finish.
