2015 Rockpile Vineyard ~ Haley Syrah Rockpile

95 Pts The 2015 Syrah Haley Rockpile Vineyard is medium to deep garnet-purple in color with compelling scents of violets, wilted roses, kirsch and baking spices over a core of wild blueberries and black cherries with wafts of lavender, garrigue and wild thyme. Full-bodied, opulent and possessing a myriad of floral and spicy sparks in the black-fruited mouth, it has a beautiful plush texture and wonderful freshness, finishing very long.

JEB DUNNUCK

92 Pts The 2015 Syrah Rockpile Vineyard doesn't have the same singular character as the other Syrahs from this site, yet still offers a beautiful, pure, elegant style that's loaded with charm. Black and blue fruits, violets, crushed rocks, and some marine-like salinity all flow to a medium to full-bodied, beautifully pure, elegant Syrah that has present tannin, good acidity, and a great finish.

Wine Spectator

90 Pts A very solid wine with perhaps a bit more structure than out and out concentrated, dramatic fruit at this point, this one is geared towards black plums and dark berries in the nose with light bits of spice and game for varietal accuracy. It is both very full in body and noticeably high in tannin at this point, and regardless of its admirable depth, it is not going to be ready to approach for up to a half decade and more.

90 Pts Built for the cellar, this red has a taut core of firm tannins bound by sturdy black currant, stony mineral and white pepper flavors.
